

A delicate floral creation full of elegance:

The first spring fragrance “FleurTeese” by Dita Von Teese entices with its romantic flirtation

Sensuous, feminine, intoxicating: The elegant Queen of Burlesque Dita Von Teese embodies femininity like no other woman. Seductive, self-assured and graceful: the sheer sensuality of Dita Von Teese expresses itself in new facets. With her third fragrance FleurTeese, the international style icon embraces her coquettish, romantic side. FleurTeese is a passionate bouquet, inspired by lush but delicate blossoms and idyllic floral gardens. Dita Von Teese has created this romantic eau de toilette that beautifully captures the spirit of her classic Hollywood style. Delicate like her FleurTeese is an enthralling new spring fragrance that calls to mind the playful pin-up girl.

FleurTeese – the fragrance

At the start, the creamy scented, opulent Casablanca lily flirts with sensuous Sambac jasmine petals, and refreshes with a sparkling burst of bergamot notes. The delicate top note evokes the enchanting moment of the first flirtation, the first glance, the first touch. At the heart of FleurTeese is a bouquet of pure blossoms, a delicate blend of elegant accords of purple lilac combined with subtle iris, complimented by a warm shade of heliotrope flower.

These essences from Dita Von Teese's favorite flowers not only represent the ultimate femininity of the burlesque dancer, but also the sensual emotions of spring. The seductive base note of FleurTeese combines rare sandalwood and cedar wood with seductive musk, giving the fragrance depth and richness. This fragrance made from luxurious flowers and smooth wood instantly radiates fresh lightness and playful romance with a flirtatious charm. Coquettish like Dita Von Teese herself, FleurTeese is a hypnotic fragrance that encourages women to embrace their romantic and flirtatious femininity in a unique and memorable way.

FleurTeese – the bottle

The FleurTeese bottle represents the fresh romance of the fragrance in a glamorous design. The clear glass-faceted bottle elegantly showcases the lilac-colored scent. Reflecting the color palette of the fragrant flowers in the scent, the pastel and platinum color scheme epitomizes romance. A tassel with silvery pearl accent in the color of the filigree cap embraces the neck of the bottle. This sophisticated touch evokes the spirit of the fragrance and the burlesque queen herself. FleurTeese is the fascinatingly light eau de toilette variation by Dita Von Teese – romantic, sensuous, and perfect for flirtation in the springtime.
